

EMA General Assembly Speaker

Bio: Ekaterina Matveeva

(Founder & CEO of Amolingua and alumni of EMJMD Crossways in Cultural Narratives)

Ekaterina is a linguist working in 9 languages, award-winning entrepreneur, learning designer, founder of Amolingua, and leader of the ErasmusPlus funded project Lingo+. She is on a mission to create a better connected multicultural, multilingual world.

Ekaterina is also an invited professor at the Universidad de Palermo, Argentina, running an executive programme in intercultural communication and public speaking for business. She is a public speaking coach at Talkboutique, Canada, having worked with world thought leaders from TED to Singularity University. Also, she's an Advisory board member of 3 Day Startup, USA, helping university students acquire entrepreneurial skills by doing.

Her motto is: Dream, Decide, Do.