Director of Partnership Development Unit

EMA is looking forward to appointing the Director of the Partnership Development Unit who will manage EMA's internal and external partners to ensure long term financial and organisational sustainability through the development of relationships and activities that benefit EMA membership, its partners and the society.

The Unit aims to secure the long-term financial sustainability of EMA without compromising its core values. It is also focused on increasing EMA's international visibility and building a strong and resilient brand name in the corporate world. Concentrating on building relationships with external stakeholders (EMJMD consortia, students, businesses, and non-governmental organizations). Due to EMA's transformation into a legal entity, this Unit is critical for the Association's short term and long-term sustainability.
