TIP#0 WHERE TO START

- Check out the EMA Professional Guide Facebook page: https://www.facebook.com/ErasmusMundusAssociation/?fref=ts

TIP#1 APPLICATION

- Be sure you have the program's profile before you apply (on EM-ACE website or EMA Professional Guide Facebook page). If you can, apply only to programs you intend to visit its websites and study the applications more thoroughly.
- Program applications can vary, so don't assume that your previous education will suffice. Ensure your CV is up to date and includes relevant courses from your previous education.

TIP#2 RECOMMENDATION LETTER

- If you have pre-selected a programme or a couple of them, it's time to do a full work-up on each of them: what are the main courses and research facilities available?

TIP#3 MOTIVATION/COVER LETTER

- Your motivation letter should be a clear and concise statement of your personal and professional goals. Include reasons why you want to apply to the programme and what you can bring to it.

TIP#4 CV

- A CV should highlight your strong points, your previous experience in education, academic and professional capacities. Prepare a CV that can be tailored specifically for each of them. Consider including some examples of relevant courses from your previous education and experience.

TIP#5 INTERVIEW

- Be sure you have the interview appropriate Skype username and account. Make sure that your Skype picture and account are both professional and interview-ready.
- Have talking points in front of you to remind yourself of everything you want to cover.
- Remember to use relevant buzzwords they are using. Make notes along the way.

TIP#6 TIPS FOR SUCCESSFUL ERASMUS MUNDUS APPLICATION

- Don't be vague;
- Don't let your motivation letter simply echo your CV;
- Don't attach your CV to it;
- Don't make your motivation letter end on a strong note;
- Don't write a strong and positive note;

TIP#7 GUIDELINES

- These guidelines were prepared in collaboration with Erasmus Mundus Association (EMA) with Emrah Karakaya.

TIP#8 WATCH OUR WEBINAR

- Watch the recording of the webinar organized by the Erasmus Mundus Association. It will guide you through the procedure and help you create an award-winning application!

TIP#9 OTHER WEBINARS

- Check out other webinars organized by EMA PROFESSIONAL GUIDE for topics such as
- Scholarships and he gave some tips for future applicants.
- Emhart shared his own story on applying for Erasmus Mundus programmes and is the current Vice-President of the Erasmus Mundus Association.
- Emrah was well placed to be holding this webinar, as he has been involved in various Erasmus Mundus programmes and is the current Vice-President of the Erasmus Mundus Association.
